Dear Mr Newman

Just a gentle reminder that when I was last in St Louis I was up to see you and left some coins with you. I had expected you to send me some coins in exchange. At the present time I have not received same. Wont you try to take a few minutes some evening to pick out something for me.

Hope this finds you in good health.

Sincerely yours

Dear Mr. Sackheim:

You had an amazing memory with respect to the counterfeit halfpence I was interested in and I thank you, very much, for visiting me.

As I promised, I am enclosing herewith an 1833 halfpenny. It is not in marvelous shape - but neither am I.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely,

ERIC P. NEWMAN

Dear Mr Newman

Last week I was in St Louis and while I was there, I tried to reach you on the phone without success. May I give you a gentle reminder that I still expect to receive from you two more coins to offset me sending

Forest City FASHIONS

to you those three coins I had delivered to you when I last past you. Either 2 half cents or large size pennies will do. I know you are a busy man, but still with a little push perhaps I can move your kindness or forgetfullness. Hope this finds you in good health

Sincerely yours

Dear Mr.Sackheim:

I sent you a half cent in exchange for the three British halfpenny counterfeits and, apparently, you think you should have something further. Under these circumstances I am returning the three halfpence as I already felt that the coin I gave you was beyond the value of these three items. This is just a difference of opinion and I think it is resolved better by my returning the coins to you.

Thank you for trying to see me when you were last in St.Louis.

Sincerely yours,
